

NIXON PEABODY NAMES NEW COUNSEL IN LONG ISLAND

Labor & Employment Attorney Tara Daub Promoted

August 10, 2010 (Jericho, NY) – International Law firm Nixon Peabody LLP is pleased to announce that Tara Eyer Daub, a labor & employment attorney based in the firm’s Long Island office, has been promoted to counsel.

Ms. Daub is an experienced litigator who regularly defends clients against employment-related claims of employment discrimination, harassment and retaliation; actions under FMLA and disability laws; wage-hour collective and class actions; employee misclassification claims involving independent contractors; and breach of contract and restrictive covenant actions. She regularly appears in federal and New York state courts, and before various administrative agencies including the Equal Employment Opportunity Commission, the New York State Division of Human Rights, the United States Department of Labor, the New York State Department of Labor, and the National Labor Relations Board.

She has also counseled and advised clients in a wide variety of traditional labor issues including collective bargaining negotiations, unfair labor practice charges, strikes, picketing, and union organizing campaigns. She is admitted to practice in New York State courts and in the United States district courts for the Eastern and Southwestern districts of New York.

Ms. Daub also performs pro bono legal services for various nonprofit organizations. She received the Legal Aid Society’s Pro Bono Award for outstanding services to the Legal Aid Society in New York City and its clients in 2008.

She earned her J.D. from Dickinson School of Law, Pennsylvania State University, and her B.A., cum laude, from Millersville University.

NIXON PEABODY EXPANDS PRIVATE CLIENTS PRACTICE GROUP

Anthony Selvaggio Joins Rochester Office as Counsel

August 10, 2010 (Rochester, NY) – Nixon Peabody LLP is pleased to announce the arrival of Anthony T. Selvaggio as Counsel in the firm’s Private Clients Group. Mr. Selvaggio returns to the Rochester office where he worked at Nixon Peabody’s predecessor firm, Nixon, Hargrave, Devans & Doyle LLP. Mr. Selvaggio will focus his practice on wealth transfer planning and on representing individual and corporate fiduciaries in the administration of estates and trusts. He has broad experience in counseling clients in sophisticated planning techniques used to minimize estate, gift and income taxes while addressing his clients’ personal and family planning goals.

“Today’s planning environment provides both challenges and opportunities for our individual clients as they arrange for the succession of their family wealth in the context of complicated and changing tax laws,” said John Garrett, a partner in the firm’s Private Clients Group. “Anthony’s knowledge and broad base of experience will compliment our existing capabilities and be a tremendous asset to our clients.”

Scott M. Turner, the managing partner of the firm’s Rochester office, added, “We are excited that Anthony has returned to the firm and will bring his impressive skill set to our highly regarded private clients team.”

Mr. Selvaggio joins Nixon Peabody from Cobblestone Capital Advisors LLC where he counseled clients on traditional and sophisticated family wealth planning techniques. He earned his J.D. from the University of Buffalo School of Law in 1995 and his B.A., summa cum laude, from St. John Fisher College.
